

APRIL at the HAMNER THEATER

QUARTET

by Richard Washer

April 1 - 5 & 8 - 10 at 7:30pm, Tickets $10

Free Preview Tue., Mar 31, Champagne Reception Opening Night, April 1

This lyrical new play by DC's Charter Theatre playwright Richard Washer portrays a reunion haunted by the hint of unrequited love, as former members of a string quartet revisit shared memories.

Porker Brothers III

by Boomie Pedersen, Music by Tanya Kae

Sunday, April 5 at 2 & 4pm, Pay what you will, for all ages.

An ecologically relevant adaptation of The Three Little Pigs

Danny Schmidt, with Carrie Elkin - In the Cabaret

Saturday, April 11 at 7:30pm, doors/food 6:30pm, $20 or 2 for $35, includes food, by reservation only

A Night Out with the Hamner Improv Troupe

Saturday, April 25 at 7:30pm, Suggested donation $3

Daughters of the Appalachians

by Linda Goodman

April 30 - May 10, Thu-Sat at 7:30pm, Sun at 2pm, Tickets $10, suggested (Pay what you will)

FREE Preview Wed., April 29, Champagne Reception Opening Night, April 30

Mother's Day Special - Bring your daughter/mother for tea & cookies, Sunday, May 10 at 2pm

Six women, six stories, six lives intersecting in the heart of the Southern Appalachians

READINGS - Virginia Playwrights Initiative(VPI), Thursdays at 7pm, FREE

April 16 - VPI Playwright Reading of All is Always Now, by Robert Wray

April 23 - Actor Reading of All is Always Now, by Robert Wray

CLASSES - Improv Mondays with HIT and hit

Monday, April 6, 13, 20 & 27 at 5pm for 8 & up, 6pm Adults, FREE

The Hamner Theater is a non-profit project of the Rockfish Valley Community Center, 190 Rockfish School Lane, between Nellysford & Afton, 22920, in Nelson County, VA., www.hamnertheater.com, 434 361 1999

